

Deliverable 2: Generate

Demos

P Desai

- Infographics for clear and quick visual representation of data
- Statistical graphics to explore the content of data and communicate results

Himani

- Uber: Seamless User interface of the application, the flow of the application is impressive and intuitive especially the way it shows real time navigation on the application.
- Infographics on blog.adioma.com, here infographics of famous personalities like Mark Zuckerberg, Elon Musk, Bill Gates are shown starting from the day they were born in to till date. They are very factual but captivating at the same time, we can use something similar for Rule of law, to show progress in rule of law over the years.

Hong

- Best infographics for abstract ideas e.g. climate changes, human rights (idea from professor and client)
- Google doodles - extra short but appealing stories for the day

Parikh

- Use of Spider Charts to provide better visualization of the correlation between rule of law and other important factors like education, health, etc.
- Provide a visual representation which is easy to understand and also visually appealing so that it targets the maximum audience.

Yu

- Infographics for abstract concept and basic definitions. For example, here is a very good infographic illustrating the rule of law in Australia:
https://www.ruleoflaw.org.au/wp-content/uploads/2016/04/Rule_of_Law_Institute_The-Rule-of-Law-Principle-in-Australia.pdf
- Visualizations/interactive charts connect the rule of law index with other aspects of people's life all around the world.
- Rule of Law Across the World:
<http://res.cloudinary.com/yumyoshojin/image/upload/v1/pdf/legal-innovation-2017.pdf>

W Zhang

- Infographics with vivid color and illustrations can catch eyes at the first sight.
- Social media is the fastest way to spread ideas and news among all kinds of media, so we may publish our articles and infographics on Facebook, Twitter, Youtube and so on.

Ideas

P Desai

- Rule of law for women rights:
<https://unstats.un.org/unsd/gender/worldswomen.html>
<https://worldjusticeproject.org/resource-hub/women-and-girls>
- Journalism, politics, religion data:
<http://www.pewresearch.org/download-datasets/> (Not sure if the source is trustable)
- Child mortality: <http://apps.who.int/gho/data/node.main.CHILDHEALTHMORT?lang=en>
- Public health and environment
<http://apps.who.int/gho/data/node.main.CHILDHEALTHMORT?lang=en>
- Child malnutrition: <https://data.unicef.org/topic/nutrition/malnutrition/>

Himani

- Show when “Rule of law term” was coined and how several companies who adapted are doing better in terms of health, economics, homicide, child mortality rate etc. This can be beautifully captured in an infographic. For example, an infographic on “How Bill gates started infographic:” <https://blog.adioma.com/how-bill-gates-started-infographic/>
- Compilation of few small and compelling successful stories ranging from better medicine, economics to lower rate of corruption, to lower child mortality and homicide. And show stories of people of different race, countries, demographics, monthly wage to engage a wider audience.

Hong

- Tell a story about an individual, scope from small (individual) to large (current global situation, how you can make difference)
- World Happiness report (by UN, online data provided)
<http://worldhappiness.report/ed/2017/>
- Rule of law in central african -> Arbitrary character (e.g. a family in central african)
https://www.washingtonpost.com/news/monkey-cage/wp/2018/04/03/how-can-the-u-n-re-store-the-rule-of-law-to-the-central-african-republic-5-things-you-need-to-know/?noredirect=on&utm_term=.d7d56be464e0
- Cultural vitality (not global) <https://www.urban.org/data-viz>
- Tell a story from real character (like google doodle)
 - Real Character: Virginia Woolf
 - Idea: inspiring womanism.
 - Quote: "A woman must have money and a room of her own if she is to write fiction."
 - Data: UN gender stats <https://genderstats.un.org/#/home>
 - Index: Rule of law women right
 - Local NGO

- Or someone like Elizabeth Blackwell

Parikh

- Determine the situations when Rule of Law is necessary and when it isn't. It is in most cases but sometimes it's not.
- Existence of strict laws that ensure Rule of Law is being practiced.
- Show that better the Rule of Law index, better are the lives of people.

Yu

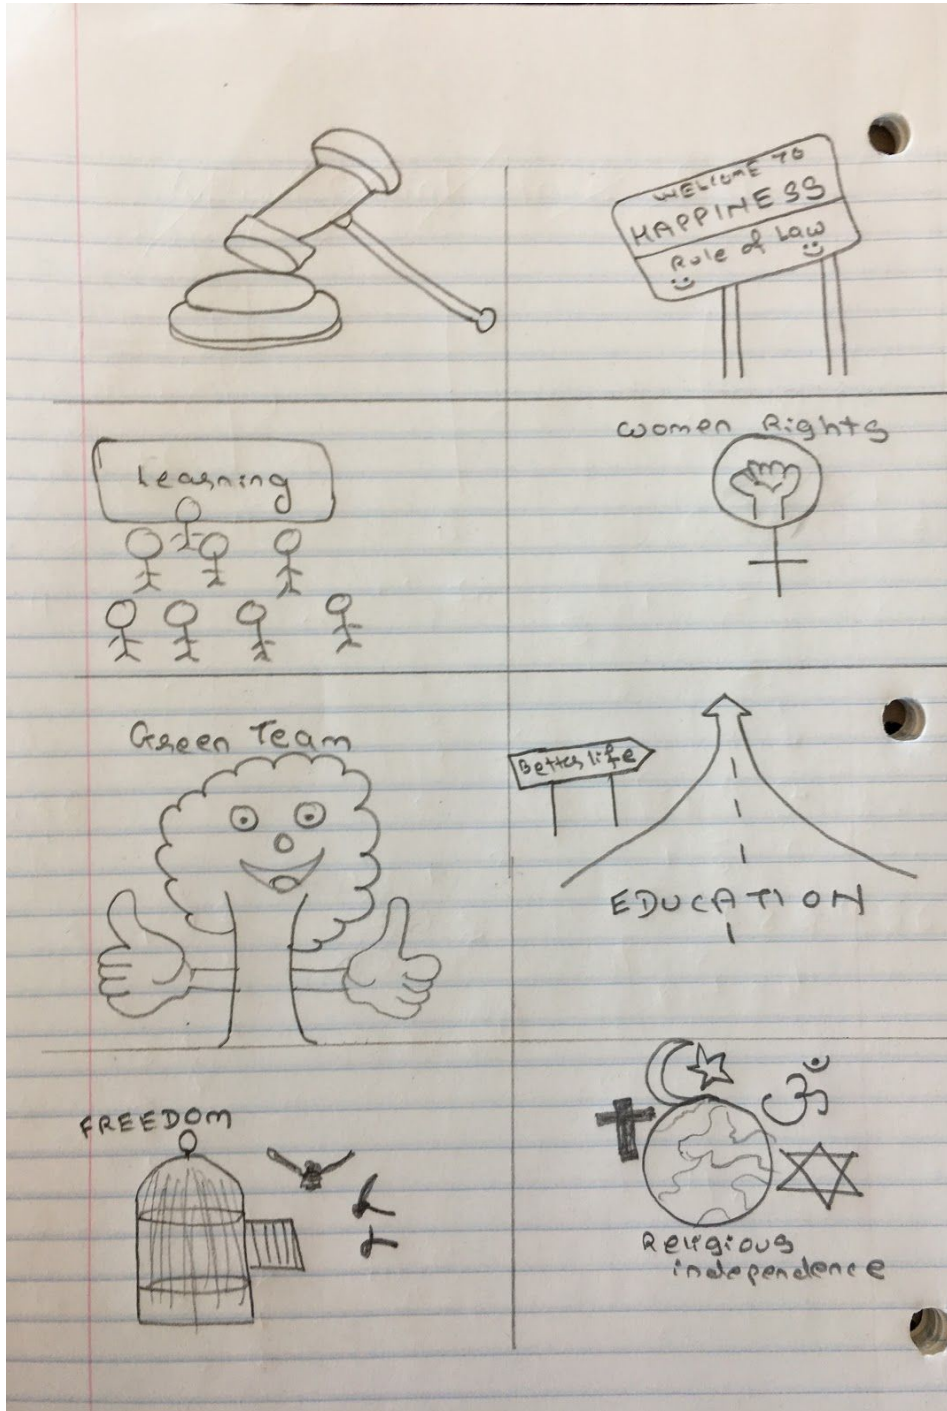

- Show the correlations between rule of law index and some aspects in life which people care the most.
- World Justice Project Rule of Law Index 2017-2018:
https://worldjusticeproject.org/sites/default/files/documents/WJP_ROLI_2017-18_Online-Edition_0.pdf
- Quality of life is one of the most important considerations that people would take when they are living in a country. First define quality of life, then show the correlation between the rule of law index and the quality of life around the world.

W Zhang

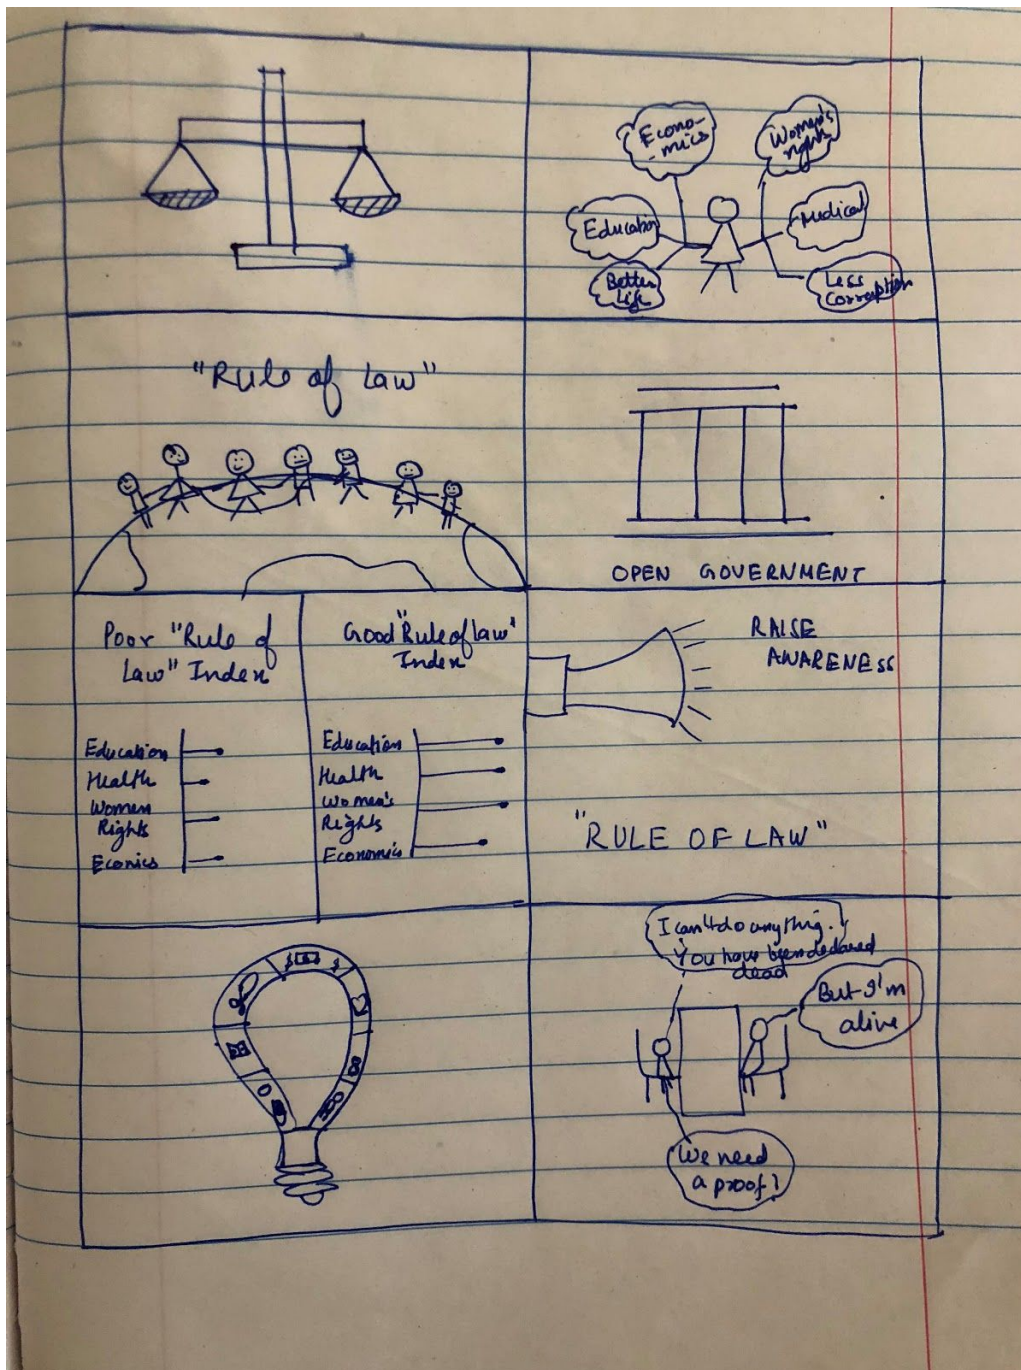

- Women's access to justice, the correlation between women's right, education, and economic.
<http://www.undp.org/content/dam/undp/library/gender/gender%20and%20governance/ImprovingWomensAccessToJustice-UNDP-UNWomen-Mapping.pdf>
- Rule of law and sustainable development, and how it affects the next generation.
- What does the rule of law mean in context of counter-terrorism.
<https://worldjusticeproject.org/news/what-does-rule-law-mean-context-counter-terrorism>
- Cyberspace need a stronger rule of law.

Variations

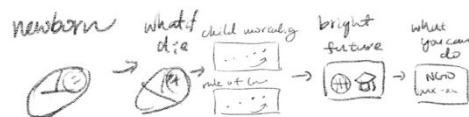

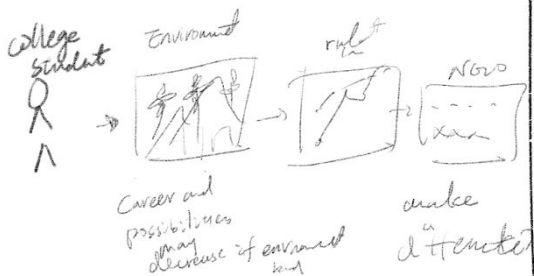

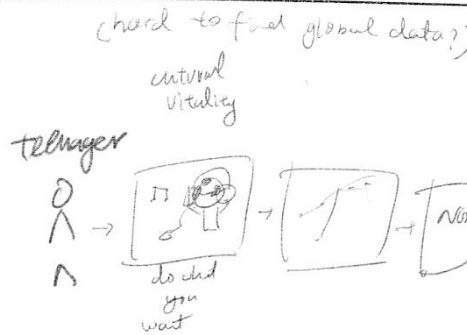

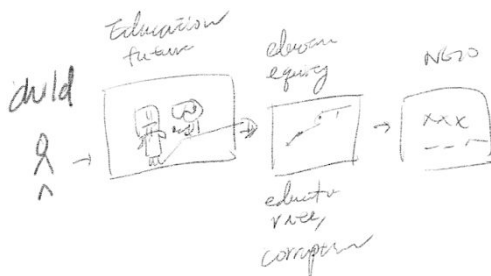

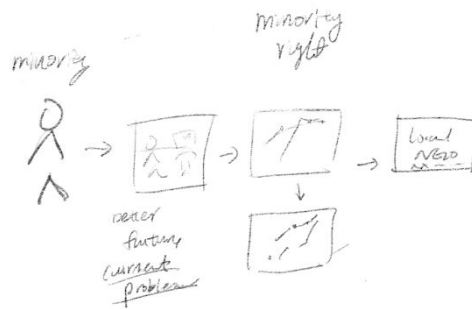

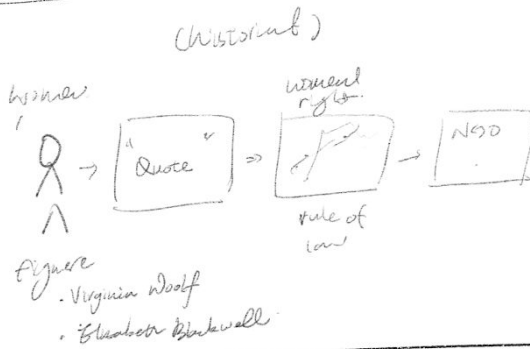

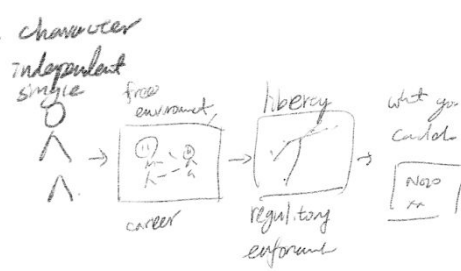

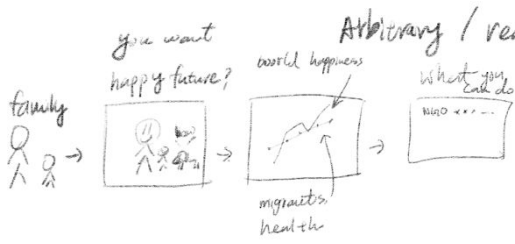

- P Desai

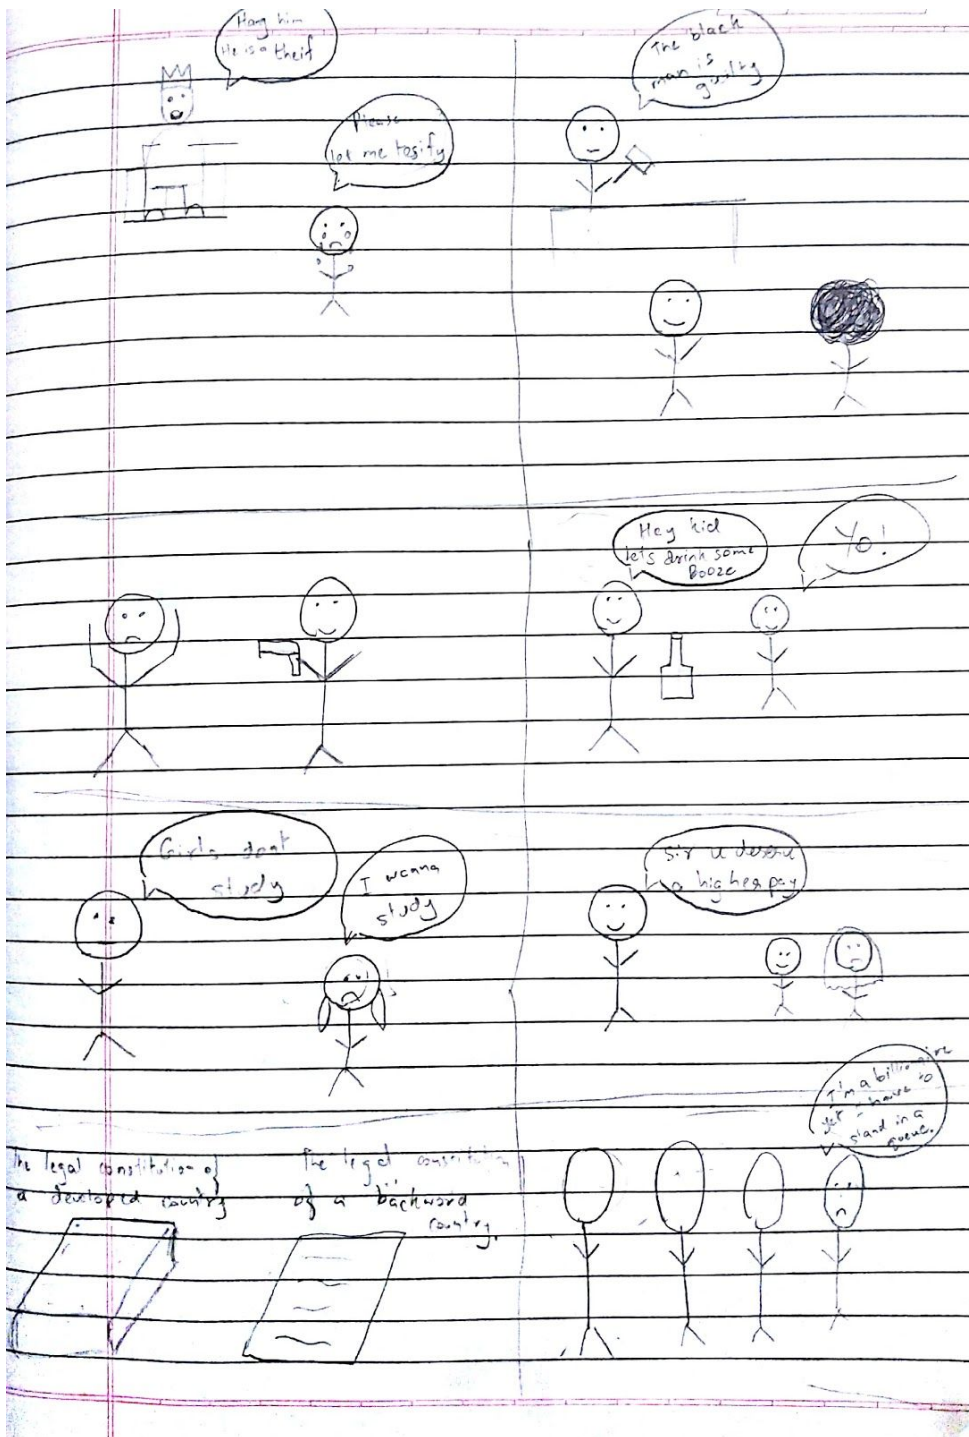

- Himani

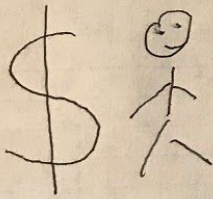

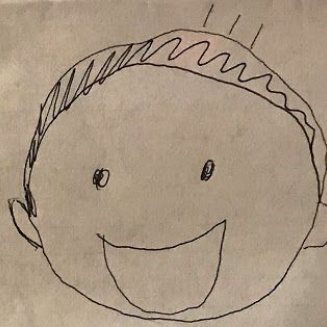

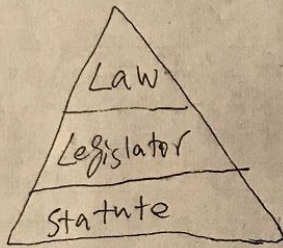

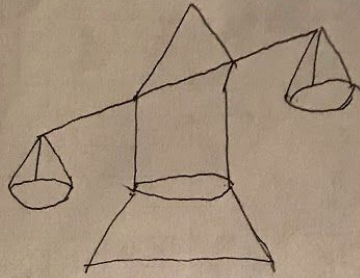

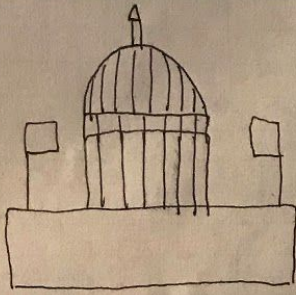

- Hong

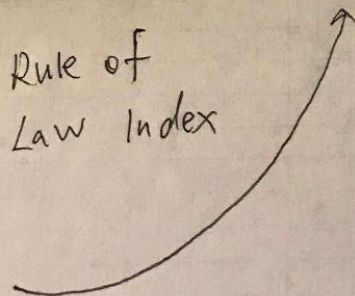

- Parikh

• Yu

Rule of Law Index

Better Life

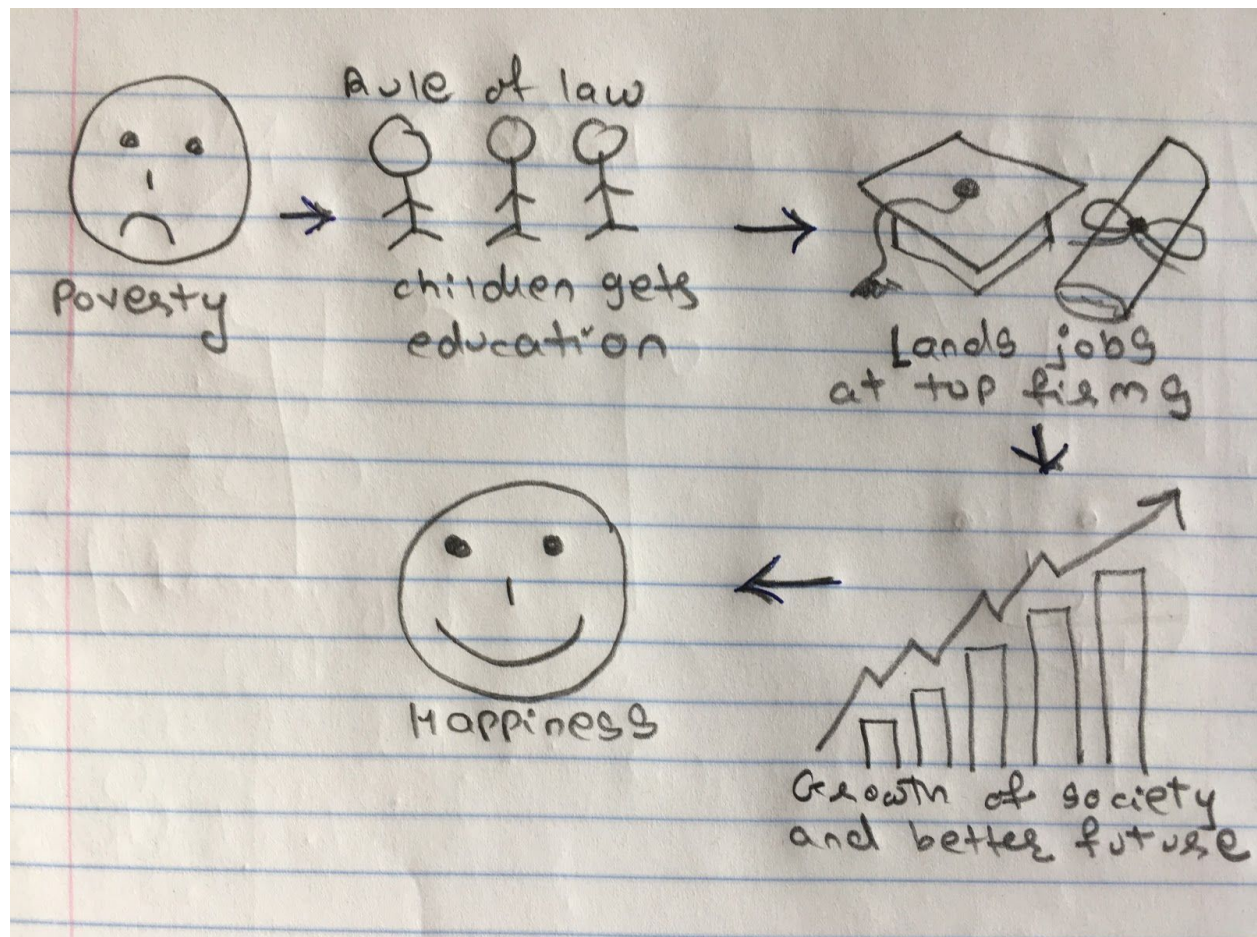

- W Zhang

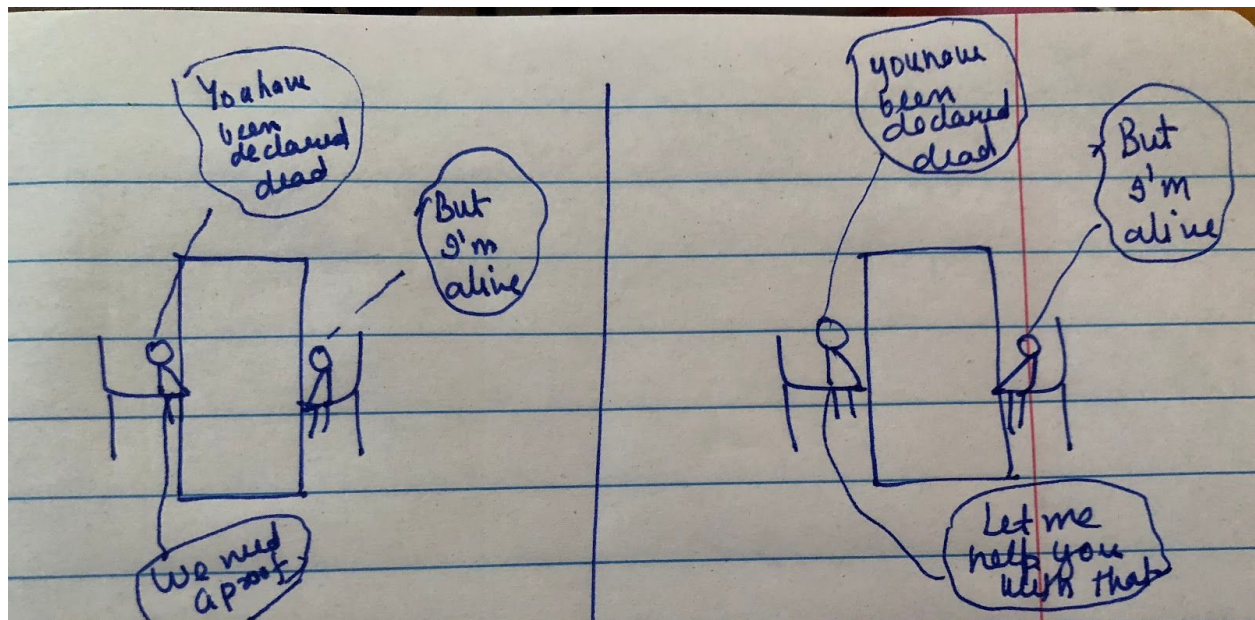

Storyboards

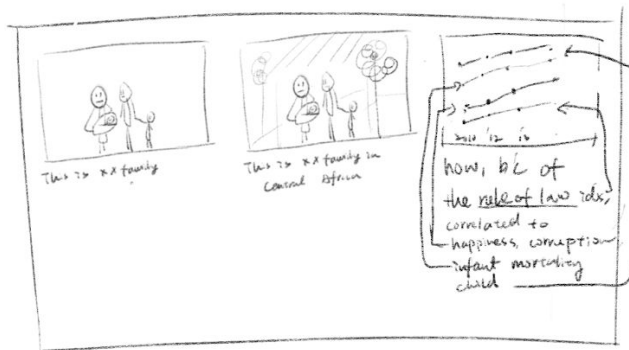

(A) P Desai

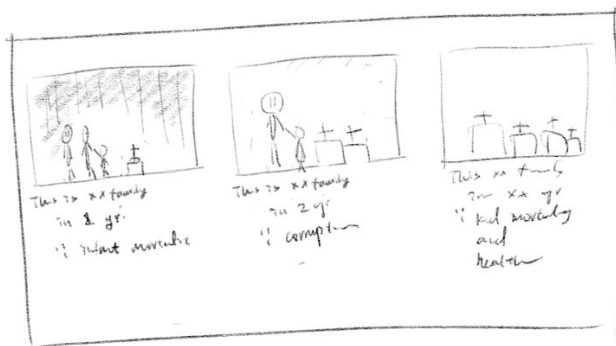

(B) Himani

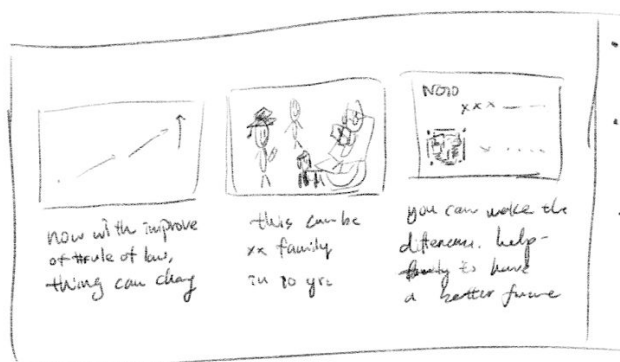

(C)Hong

- show characters
- show environment (make it real)
- explain rule of law and correlation

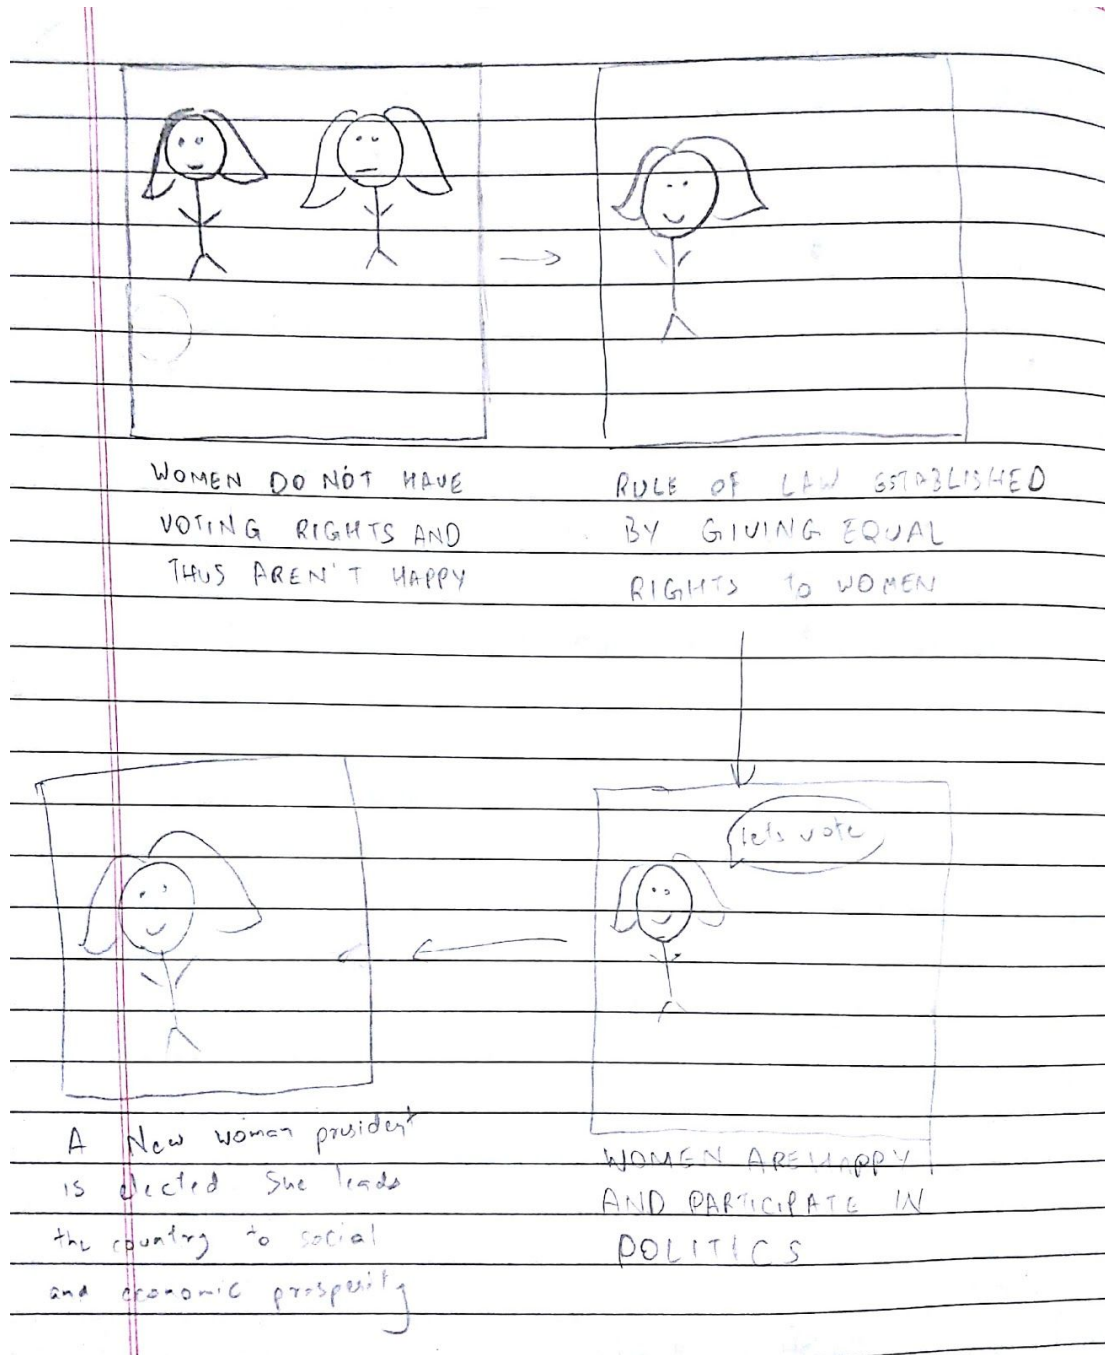

- Make it impressive for bad impact
- realistic example

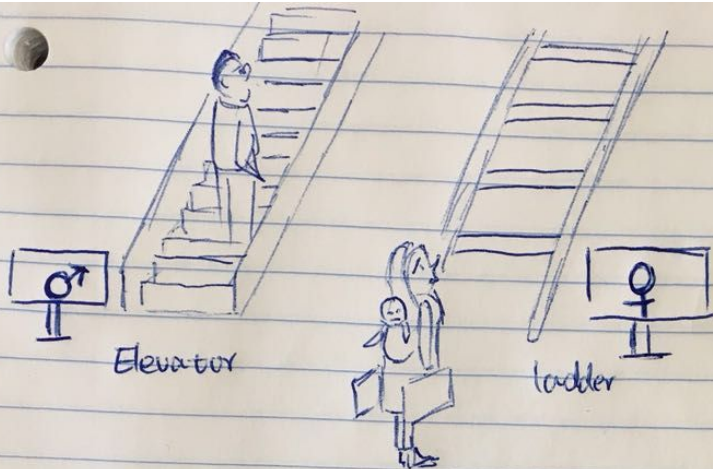

- give firm evidence
- bright influence
- convert "them" with "you"

(D) Parikh

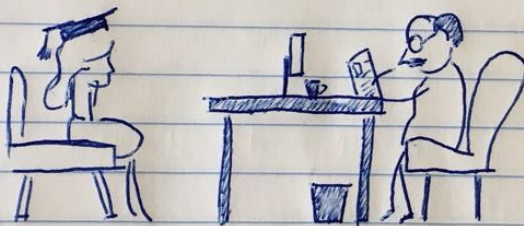

<https://genderstats.un.org/#/indicators>

(E)W Zhang

The common employment difficulties faced by women in different regions

The Influence of Education on Women's Right.

Women's right in Different Countries

